

A Story In 3 Scenes

Title: Two glasses. One table.

Before starting this prompt choose a writing genre.

Suggestions: Travel? Family? Murder mystery? Romance? Comedy? Crime?

Quote

I'd rather have roses on my table than diamonds on my neck.

~ Emma Goldman

Scene 1:

Table

There are two glasses on the table.....

Explore the surroundings and the table in approximately 300 words.

Scenario suggestions: Airport? Cafe?
Kitchen? Old casino?

Scene 2:

A Discussion

One character approaches the table and sits down. Not much time passes before a second character sits and discussion ensues.

Explore in approximately 300 words.

Discussion suggestions: A compromising moment? An outrageous suggestion? A family indiscretion?

Scene 3:

Dramatic

The conversation suddenly takes a dramatic turn. One of the glasses is pushed to the floor and smashes.

Explore in approximately 300 words.

Suggestions for what causes the dramatic moment: A kiss? A family revelation? The entrance of a third character? A financial indiscretion?

Ending the story

How will the story end? Will our characters end up draped over the table or underneath it, will they walk away as friends, lovers or enemies? Will they walk away at all.....

Now submit your story to be featured - featured@promptcreative.com

Information -

CLICK

Shop - CLICK

PROMPT Creative

•com

PROMPTING CREATIVITY

Copyright Promptcreative.com ~ Contact: hello@promptcreative.com

CLICK TO FOLLOW

